Tick tock
The clock it's ticking
And it won't stop
It's gettin' harder every moment you're away
And everything inside of me
Hopes you are on your way
'Cuz I am shaking
Thinkin' about the love that we'll be makin'
Anticipation's got me pacing
But it feels so amazing
I know I should be patient
But I can't wait no longer

Hurry please
I'm wantin' you and needin' you
To come see me
I'm missin' you and kissin' you
In all my dreams
And I don't wanna rush you
But hurry please
And come to see me
Hurry please
I'm wantin' you and needin' you
To come see me
I'm missin' you and kissin' you
In all my dreams
And I don't wanna rush you
But hurry please
And come to see me

911
It's an emergency
So can you come
In desperate need of yours
I'm searching
'Cuz I've been havin' sometimes
Can you feel my sunshine
And hurry please before I lose my mind
Like I need to see you (I really need to see you)
Anticipation's got me pacing
But it feels so amazing

I know I should be patient
But I can't wait no longer

Hurry please
I'm wantin' you and needin' you
To come see me
I'm missin' you and kissin' you
In all my dreams
And I don't wanna rush you
So hurry please
And come to see me
Hurry please
I'm wantin' you and needin' you
To come see me
I'm missin' you and kissin' you
In all my dreams
And I don't wanna rush you
So hurry please
And come to see me

Never in my life
Have I, ever felt this way before
As time goes by
I yern for you more and more
Please, don't keep me waiting
I love the way I feel when I'm with you
So in other words

Hurry please
I'm wantin' you and needin' you
To come see me
I'm missin' you and kissin' you
In all my dreams
And I don't wanna rush you
But hurry please
And come to see me
Hurry please
I'm wantin' you and needin' you
To come see me
I'm missin' you and kissin' you
In all my dreams
And I don't wanna rush you
But hurry please
And come to see me

Hurry please...
Hurry please...
