In early days of history
The earth was young and wild
And still the Greek mythology
Brings olden times to life

Black the sky
The ground was shaking
When Titans walked the land
Blood and cries
The gods were raging
When they took dominance

In songs of epic poetry
Old hero-tales were placed
The writers of the Aegean Sea
Been kissed by Muse's grace

[Chorus:]
Gods and Legends of War
The Ancients were yelling: "Glory and fame!"
Olympus is waiting, immortal halls
Gods and Legends of War
Gods and Legends of War
The Ancients were yelling: "Glory and fame!"
Olympus is waiting, immortal halls
Gods and Legends of War

Prometheus stole heaven's fire
And brought it to mankind
In anger Zeus chained him to rocks
To punish for this crime

Black the sky
Of deadly arrows
When Persia came to Greece
Blood and cries
The Spartan warriors
They killed with swords and spears

See Jason and the Argonauts
Ulysses, bravest king

Medusa, Troy and Minotaur
Enchanting Sirens sing

[Chorus:]

Gods and Legends of War
The Ancients were yelling: "Glory and fame!"
Olympus is waiting, immortal halls
Gods and Legends of War
Gods and Legends of War
The Ancients were yelling: "Glory and fame!"
Olympus is waiting, immortal halls
Gods and Legends of War

In early days of history
The earth was young and wild
And still the Greek mythology
