Get Ready - Half Way There

Another hour till the morning comes
And youre lying next to me
The moonlight shines through the window pain
Its you, I see
Thought our love would last forevermore
Thought youd always be by my side (forever)
Wait just a minute
The love I feel, I just cant hide

Bridge:

Wait for me, every night I get down and pray that youll be waiting for me
Cause theres so much more to say

Chorus:

We only got half way there
Only had half our time
I cant get used to thinking that youre no longer mine
We only got half way there
Only had half our time
Dont walk away, dont leave me now
Dont leave our love behind

Everyday I wish that it could be the way it was before
You know its true theres nobody else who loves you more
Theres so much love that I feel inside
I wanna give it all to you, oh baby
Tell me you feel it
Tell me you feel the same way too

Bridge

Id change my ways today girl if I could only hear you say
You wanna stay with me, lay with me
I only wanna feel you body next to mine (feel you)

Touching me, kissing me, I wanna love you for all time
Chorus (2x)
