Listen up boys and girls, listen up
You only live once so just give it all you got tonight
Live today like you'll never see the sun rise
And like you'll never see the sun set

This is where we write on the walls,
Write all the words we've always wanted to say
This is where we find a choir and sing
All the songs we've always wanted to sing

Rather dance with a match then burn the sound to the ground
You're playing your play with fire boy
But we're all gonna die young now so
Throw fear out the window

Rather dance with a match then burn the sound to the
You're playing your play with fire boy
But we're all gonna die young now so
Throw fear out the window

I'm here to take a risk tonight,
I'm gonna break the expectations
I'm here to make some memories
And take what's put in front of me

Whoa, keep those eyes on the road
Baby turn on those brights,
'Cause we won't turn around

Whoa, keep those eyes on the road
Baby turn on those brights,
'Cause we won't turn around

Rather dance with a match then burn the sound to the
You're playing your play with fire boy
But we're all gonna die young now so
Throw fear out the window

Rather dance with a match then burn the sound to the
You're playing your play with fire boy
But we're all gonna die young now so
Throw fear out the window
