Everybody says "That girl's talk is cheap, oh so cheap."
Well I bought every line, down to my last dime.
And she is the music and I'm the audience,
That will always be right there to clap their hands.
Baby, I'll always be right there to clap my hands.

She's keeping me up on my feet.
And I can feel her in my heart.
And I can feel her inside this beat.
Put your hands up on my chest,
Baby, listen up 'cause maybe you're the one,
Oh, I know that you're the one that keeps me singing.

Everybody says "That girl's talk is cheap, oh so cheap."
Well I bought every line, down to my last dime.
And she is the music and I'm the audience,
That will always be right there to clap their hands.
Baby, I'll always be right there to clap my hands.
