it rains and pours in twos wonder if I'll come home
no strength left to battle you run to the open arms
of anyone
anyone
I'm watching you fall from grace
breaking a heart of gold don't ever try saving face just run with your heart of stone
anyone
run with your heart of stone don't keep waiting up for me don't keep hoping I'll come home
