

Get Up Kids, The "My Apology"

Visit "My Apology" on MotoLyrics.com

You'll be accepting my apology
For taking things too seriously.
Sometimes I'm old enough to keep routine
Sometimes I'm child enough to scream.
For everything I broke into,
You're barely missing me- I'm missing you.
For everything you do, I really do.
Really do, I'm sure I do.
My once photographic memory
For recollections' sake is failing me.
I can't remember for the life of me.
Sometimes I can think to recite
Words that I read and re-write.
My pens paint people that I've proven wrong.
We move on.
Get a job where I tell
All of my accounts of someone else.
I'm quick enough to judge that they were wrong
And that we knew it all along.
Sing along long-winded song
I would be content to hum along.

Ooh..

If I state

That my fingers know where to show

What everyone should have known

I'll let it go.

Hopefully you'll forget,

These words that I've put in print.

My luck, You'll change.

Have strength enough to walk away.

Sometimes I can think to recite

Words that I read and re-write

My pens paint people that I've proven wrong.

We move on
