long way from home
lost by an echo, I'd never of known i've got pictures to prove i was there but you dont care
here's me overseas cross the pond by the dover peaks i've smuggled myself into new nationalities think you'd be proud of me there's room to believe out of sight, out of mind, out of reach start over, it's no way to begin
long way from home
lost by an echo, never of known i've got pictures to prove i was there
but you dont care
out of sight, out of mind, out of reach,
start over, start over, it's no way to begin there's room to believe
start over, start over it's no way to begin, way to begin, way to begin
