I wonder when I wander home,

If I'll be fit to drink alone.

Sleep with my memories, pictures, apologies.

For every minute yesterday,

Regret reminds me anyway.

If I remember anything,

Iã, 'll make mistakes again.

Last night on the Mass Pike, Thought I was losing you.

Last night on the Mass Pike, I fell in love with you.

I will declare a holiday,

The night that she turned me away.

Iã, 'm drowning in my miseries.

It solves everything.

Last night on the Mass Pike, Thought I was losing you.

Last night on the Mass Pike, I fell in love with you.

With you.

Last night on the Mass Pike, Thought I was losing you.

Last night on the Mass Pike, I fell in love with you.

Last night on the Mass Pike, Thought I was losing you.

Last night on the Mass Pike, I fell in love with you
