A long way from home, lost by an echo
you'd never have known.
I've got pictures to prove I was there,
But you don't care.

Here's me over seas
'Cross the pond by the dover peaks.
I've smuggled myself into new nationalities,
Think you'd be proud of me?

There's room to believe
Out of sight, out of mind, out of reach
Start over,
It's no way to begin.

A long way from home, lost by an echo
You'd never have known.
I've got pictures to prove I was there,
But you don't care.

There's room to believe
Out of sight, out of mind, out of reach.
Start over,(start over)
It's no way to begin

There's room to believe
Out of sight, out of mind, out of reach.
Start over, (start over)
It's no way to begin,
Way to begin,
Way to begin.
