A little black cloud has taken the grief from the east
I broke down in my tears.
I complained of the cruelty of my destiny.
I stood next to where you sleep.

Just I'm crying, am crying in a cold cold shadow alone.
Just I'm falling, am falling, am blinded by your love.

My love, My love
My heart is in you
I feel you now. You don't want me anymore
Because I know your sigh will be the color of the wind.
And you wrap me gently. It's the shape of your love.

A memory with you is also pulling my heart.
When will this pain melt away?
Even if I look for you to the end of the place.
I can't find you anymore

Just I'm crying, am crying in a cold cold shadow alone.
Just I'm falling, am falling, am blinded by your love.

My lord, My lord
Help me from this pain
I need you now
Please lead me to the way of light
Because I know your sigh will be the color of the wind
And you wrap me gently. It's the shape of your love.

I can not satisfy, god tell me where is my love

My love, My love
My heart is in you
I feel you now. You don't want me anymore
Because I know your sigh will be the color of the wind.
And you wrap me gently. It's the shape of your love.
