LIED TO GOD by AVATARA

You think you're holy and devout than someone else ?
You think you can judge and punish for everyone ?
I'm just a young one who did not obey
I'm just getting any question of who you are

It's too dark
In finding the answers
Wait !

The messenger had delivered the commandment
The messenger had bequeathed of what he done

You think you can keep your gauche to vandalizes of this
You think you're right for everything you had done
I'm just a young one who did not obey
I'm just getting any question of who you are

It's too dark
In finding the answers
Wait !

Wittnes the darkness
It has fallen , it's getting worse , just turn back to the dark

Hypocrites

You lied to god !
