Him as a surprise
Didn't know how
Didn't know why

Placing in disguise I'm tempted

Twinkled in my eyes
Should I let go
Should I go on
Shivers all around I've waited

Is it a sign, Could this be the love that I have lost
Cause it's even deeper
Is it a sign, Is this the something I've longed for
Cause it's so much stronger

Is it a sign, Could this be the moment I've waited for
Cause it's even better
Is it a sign, Is he that someone, I've dreamt of
Cause it's so much better

He's so much better
He's so much better
He's so much better
He's so much better

Wrapped around inside
Feeling so warm
Feeling so live
Whisper through the night I've tasted

He's in paradise needed to go
Needed to move on
Places in my heart

I've wasted

Is it a sign, Could this be the love that I have lost
Cause it's even deeper
Is it a sign, Is this the something I've longed for
Cause it's so much stronger

Is it a sign, Could this be the moment I've waited for
Cause it's even better
Is It a sign, Is he that someone, I've dreamt of
Cause it's so much better

He's so much better, He's so much better
He's so much better, He's so much better
He's so much better, He's so much better
So much better, so much better
So much better, so much better

He's so much better
He's so much better
He's so much better
He's so much better
He's so much better
