Tell me have you ever took the time to feel
That everything around you is alive and real
But many think is somehow, there is no big deal
So they take, they break, ãçâ, ãœtil there's nothing more to get

Oh world, naked and bruised
Oh world, got so much to lose
Oh world, tired and used
Oh world, Please tell me

What on earth is going on, What on earth is going on Must they cut all the trees
Catch the fishes from the seas
Will they realize that, The catch is not that key

But many don't give a care
They even still run free
Save your tears, Don't cry ãçâ, ãœCause the world is getting well

Oh world, naked and bruised
Oh world, got so much to lose
Oh world tired and used
Oh world, Please tell me

What on earth is going on, What on earth is going on I'm only a human with an unborn child
I tried to do my best do
Don't know wrong but right

We had to many wars with the real ãçâ, ãœcause to fight
So think fast
Don't think twice
The damage has been done

Oh world, naked and bruised
Oh world, got so much to lose
Oh world tired and used
Oh world, Please tell me

What on earth is going on
What on earth is going on
What on earth is going on
