[VERSE 1]

Now girls call me lover, sometimes the rhyme sayer
I could be president, but I'll settle for mayor
With money in my pocket, girls at my side
Sit back and relax while we cruise in my ride
Not alone when I'm home, even when I'm asleep
If you've never been, girl, please come, cause I'm deep
Never broke one promise, won't break your heart
If you want me, baby, tell me when, so you can start

No frontin, no schemin, only doin the do
And if you play hard to get, you won't get got, it's true

Can't stop the feelin once I hit my feet
If I order, young lady, want it nice and sweet
Not sour, I'll devour, and it won't last long
Like a weight that's too heavy, so I gotta be strong She'll be cheating, then weeding her clothes at the door
With the note that I wrote: 'I don't want you no more'
So don't turn around, baby, go straight ahead
Stop cryin, cause you're lyin, what you're sayin is dead

[VERSE 4]

So don't ever cross me in no kind of way
And if you come to my house you see a bed to slay
I'm not tryin to be cute, but I admit you're fine
And I can see you and me walkin down the line
Say 'I' and don't lie, say 'do' as well
And if you don't decide, only time will tell
I'm not tryin to run your life, only give an advice
Soon to be you and me, well, it would be nice
