I've sunk a lot into this venture I expect returns
I've suffered all the slings and arrows I know where it hurts
I'm unstable you seem able
Organize me start with anything you want

Wide awake and sleepwalking in
Don't you want me, don't you?
We could break the landspeed record
Don't you want to, don't you?

I've planted all these firecrackers around me like a shield
You penetrate, you immolate do you understand the deal?
I'm a living doll disaster
Renovate me start with anything you want

Wide awake and sleepwalking in
Don't you want me, don't you?
We could break the landspeed record
Don't you want to, don't you?

Don't know why he won't come home?
Don't know why he won't come home?
Don't know why he won't come home?
Don't know why he won't come home?

Don't know why he won't come home?
Don't know why he won't come home?
Don't know why he won't come home?
Don't know why he won't come home?

Don't you want to live forever, I could hook you up
We could break the landspeed record
Don't you want to don't you
Don't you baby, don't you baby want to shine and burn?
Don't you want to be remembered?
I do I do I do
