"The Promise"

Hey, what I meant to say
Let's get lost and find our way
And chance might shine on us, today

We fight, we win, we fight, we lose, we fight
We get lost and call it a night
Our mouths will tire before our devils do

There's a promise hidden in my blood
In the name of everything I love
I will draw the crescent down and set it in your crown

[Incomprehensible]

Remember what you said
Better to run than play dead
Here's our chance to prove it let's just do it
I have a dream and we are looking back and laughing

And there's a promise hidden in my blood
In the name of everything I love
I will draw the crescent down and set it in your crown

[Incomprehensible]
