INTRO

If experience teaches wisdom, how some guy a profess so much wisdom
Based entirely off the fact weh them proudly proclaim, Say them nuh experience noten yet?
Well you know me, born to do it and do it well in spite of and despite some cruff

VERSE 1

Some people spend a lifetime, only experience politics and religion
Some people seize every moment, others stay governed by indecision
Some people live their life like a victim, resign to failure and them refuse fi see that Just siddung and a complain bout the system And nuh wah try noten? No star! A nuh me that

HOOK

I live my life like there's an engine revving in it, a push every minute to the limit and I Never back from a challenge, you a see me in it a push every minute to the limit now
And if the ball no wah fi roll then me haffi fling it, push every minute to the limit and I Nah siddung fi a next guy come begin it, a push every minute to the limit now

VERSE 2

Some people spend a fortune trying to live up to others expectations
Sacrifice their heart's desire to preserve superficial relations
Some people live their life like a metaphor
