Running out of ideas for tonight,
its getting hard to handle.
and all i need is a clearer picture of me.
All i ever wanted was to take the fast road south its never ideal to sit still,
when all i needed was a clearer picture of me.

bleed once its enough,
is it really worth the fuss?
whats telling your head where to place your steps its
tough,
its a temperamental state im in and its all wrong.

Hold me now
dont let me let myself go down, its eternity were up against now x2 its not worth it if i make it this far to fail, just because of my own hard head so,
hold me now dont let me let myself go down its eternity were up against now.

I dont have to feel the way i do now,
honey but right now,
the way that im feelin has got more appeal.
right or wrong it wont be long till i found myself
in a place where i can feel home again.
home again yeah..

bleed once its enough,
is it really worth the fuss?
whats telling your head where to place your steps its
tough,
its a temperamental state im in and its all wrong.
