Here we are again
Said all there is to say
No matter what's said, is there really a chance at this?
Holding back tears
Stop putting my heart in this, a long time ago
Don't you know
Cause' I'm here to tell you

Your hair all around is lying on my pillow
I can't make, can't make a sound when I cry
Your breath on my face, and you holding my hand anyway
If only we were seventeen forever

See it happen everytime
Something that feels so right brings us down inside
Let's hold onto youth
And bring back the you
From a long, from a long time ago
Don't you know
Cause' I'm here to tell you

Your hair all around is lying on my pillow
I can't make, can't make a sound when I cry
Your breath on my face, and you holding my
hand anyway
If only we were seventeen forever

If I could I'd give the world to you You'd find a million reasons, somehow see Gonna make it all Ok

Your hair all around is lying on my pillow
I can't make, can't make a sound when I cry
Your breath on my face, and you holding my
hand anyway
If only we were seventeen forever
