I took a chance and I waited on this girl
I knew that it could end
I knew that she might someday break my heart
I took a ride down to meet up with that girl it worked out in the end
it turns out that the end was just our start

I took a fall and I landed on my heart
It took some time to heal
I never want to feel like that again
i took a chance and I waited on this girl
I knew that it could end
it turns out that the end was just our start

Cause as the sunshine's fading
I know that you are awaiting, my call
And I won't let you down this time, this time

I'll take your dreams, and make them mine
If only I could hold you in my arms
I'll do anything, I'll get it right this time
So just hold on and listen to your heart

I took my pride and I threw it all away
For love I'll let that go
I just want you to know the way I feel
You took my heart and you held it in your hand
I hope you understand
That when you play with love that this gets real

Take this confessions as you will
Forget it, I did it, and it's over
Just take this car and drive
Drive till nothing's left
Take this confessions as you will
Forget it, I did it, and it's over

Cause as the sunshine's fading
I know that you are awaiting, my call
And I won't let you down this time, this time

I'll take your dreams, and make them mine
If only I could hold you in my arms
I'll do anything, I'll get it right this time
So just hold on and listen to your heart
