Inside I'm free
no need to breathe the knife cuts a careful arch intent to leave it's mark and through it, i see
Around and around the bend this circle remains an end
Around and around the bend
this circle remains a friend
Around and around the bend
this cycle remains a test in the garden she's scene captured imagery buried beneath the ground still life all around
and through it, i see
this circle remains an end
Around and around the bend
this circle remains a friend
this cycle remains a test
with a step she closes in on me like broken glass a drop of jewelry with a click she takes my breath away and holds it for another day
Around and around the bend
below the place i carve and rest a matchbook sparks a lone address the fire burns and walks with me down to Contemplation Street
