Jealousy is raining down on me right now
As the fear of losing you is setting in
But ill continue to do my best
Although its scary
Wondering if this will be the very first time to lose
And not to win
And I've got no back up plan

But Im not a quitter
I'm not a quitter

Im trying to scream but I cant breathe
Can anybody hear me?
Im trying to dream but I cant sleep
Can anyone shield me?
I shut my eyes and hold my cries to myself
My prides in the shitter
But I
Won't quit, never quit

Confidence is coming back to me right now
As the strength to earning you is coming to Cause Ive continued to do my best
Although it was scary wondering if this would be my very first time to win
And not to lose
Cause Ive got no back up plan.

But ImNot a quitter
I'm not a quitter

Im trying to scream but I cant breathe
Can anybody hear me?
Im trying to dream but I cant sleep
Can anyone shield me?
I shut my eyes and hold my cries to myself
My prides in the shitter
But I
Won't quit, never quit

Confidence is coming back to me

As the fear of losing you is setting in
But ill continue to do my best
Although its scary
Wondering if this could be my very first time to win
And not to lose

Im trying to scream but I cant breathe
Can anybody hear me?
Im trying to dream but I cant sleep
Can anyone shield me?
I shut my eyes and hold my cries to myself
My prides in the shitter
But I
Won't quit, never quit
