Grown up an only child
One parent home
My style was spoiled and doubted
Not trusted, neglected by others around

You saved
You saved me

You were the only one
There for me, loved me
Dearly, treated and supported me
Right through the thick and the thin

You saved
You saved me

Look at me now
I hope you're proud
You're everything to me

Taught me to be myself
Showed independent help along through
Struggles made it work ourselves
Just a mother and child

You saved
You saved me

Look at me now
I hope you're proud
You're everything to me

Look at me now
I hope you're proud
You're everything to me

Look at me now
I hope you're proud
You're everything to me

You're everything
Everything

Everything
Thing
