I can't tease you no more for your pleasure you whore
I can't lie around your sore ass I used to adore now you bore me I won't be abused I'll ignore your a failure breaking sacred emotional ties for a piece of nothin' selfish and a shame placing all the blame on us your selfish and a shame to us you can't live life this way you can't hurt me like that cause your not even strong you're wrong and won't be around long so just take a hint and be gone and move on please selfish and a shame to your friends all day and night you put yourself first at the expense of others happiness
