Time

Just a counter clockwise in emotion

Time

It requires strength, love and devotion

Time

A dictation of every person

Time

It moves to make us

Free again

When we can turn back time to any time

By, by movin' on inside

And will still ask why, all of the time

I would be just fine inside of our minds

Time

Grows things older, faster when you find it

Time

It's wastin' away while we spend it

Time

A reflection of our past with it

Time

Is used to make things

Right again

When we can turn back time to any time

By, by movin' on inside

And will still ask why, all of the time

I would be just fine inside of our minds

Time

I can see this comin' over my mind

'Cause you're right

It's right, my plight

When we can turn back time to any time

By, by moving on inside

And will still ask why, all of the time

I would be just fine inside

When we can turn back time to any time

By, by moving on inside

And will still ask why, all of the time
I would be just fine inside of our minds

Our minds
You're right
You're right
(You're my strength)
Because you're right
You're right
Inside
Our minds
Minds
Minds
Minds
Minds
