Hey Yeah

Rule Baby, Yeah

Mary J. Blige

Murda INC

Smile...

(Mary)

It's just those rainy days

Spend a lifetime tryin to wash away

Until the sun comes out and shines again

Smile for me, smile for me

(Ja Rule)

All of those rainy days

Spend a lifetime tryin to wash away

Until the sun comes out and I see your face

Smile at me, smile at me

(Mary)

We were always livin so crazy and sexy and cool

And we began to love it (began to love it)

Watchin all the heartache and pain of the world

And thinkin' nothin' of it (thinkin' nothin' of it)

And baby I got love for you

And I know that you got me, baby (got me, baby)

But everytime the sun shines bright

It gets so cloudy

It's just those rainy days

Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun comes out and shines again

Smile for me, smile for me

(Ja Rule)

All of those rainy days

Spend ya lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun shines and I see your face

Smile at me, smile at me

(Mary)

Nobody loves the rain

(Ja Rule)

Can't stand it

We know we've seen it before

(Mary)

Baby, handle it

Baby, what did we tell ya before

About chasin' those waterfalls

(Both)

Yeah...

(Mary)

Nobody loves the rain

(Ja Rule)

Can't stand it

We know that we've seen it before

(Mary)

Baby, handle it

Baby, what did we tell ya before about chasin' those waterfalls

(Both)

Yeah...

(Ja Rule)

Yeah Baby

Sometimes the Rule don't mind the rain

It knida feels like I'm drownin in the Lord's pain

Until the sun comes out and shines again

Smile, and give me a reason to keep on believin'

That everything ain't misleadin'

And I, kiss the clouds on them rainy days

And, smile for you when the skies are gray

Babe, 'cause I'm a tear drop away from cryin'

And a few shots away from dyin

Dear Lord would you shower my pain

Let it rain, let it rain on me

While I cherish the air I breathe

I'm an angel, that can't soar, can't fly

And I, mastered it Lord knows why

(Mary)

It's just those rainy days

Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun comes out and shines again

Smile for me, smile for me

(Ja Rule)

All of those rainy days

Spent ya lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun shines and I see your face

Smile at me, smile at me

(Mary)

I feel like an angel

With my broken wings

So I can soar again

Lord, let me in

Baby through all the passion, the pain, and the hurt

I feel like I'm fallin', yeah

Makin clothes for all of those that

Spread the love

And for those who can't take it

Stand up

Baby, we gonna make it

In the words of Marvin Gaye

War is not the answer

'Cause nobody loves the rain

(Ja Rule)

Can't stand it

We know we've seen it before

(Mary)

Baby, handle it

Baby, what did we tell ya before

About chasin' those waterfalls

(Both)

Yeah...

(Mary)

Nobody loves the rain

(Ja Rule)

Can't stand it

We know we've seen it before

(Mary)

Baby, handle it

Baby, what did we tell ya before

About chasin' those waterfalls

(Both)

Yeah...

(Mary)

It's just those rainy days

Sapend a lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun come out and shines again

Smile for me, smile for me

(Ja Rule)

All of those rainy days

Spend ya lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun shines and I see your face

Smile at me, smile at me

(Mary)

Smile, smile, smile, smile, smile, smile, smile, smile.

Til' the sun shines

Just smile for me

Just smile for me, just smile at me

Know in your heart, that we are free

Free to beileve, whatever we feel

So feel somethin' real, baby
