If I could spend my life in awe
Of everything I ever saw
You'd be the one to lift me up
Higher than I am

If the sky came crashing down
You'd be the only star I found
Of all those scattered on the ground
I'd hold you in my hand, hold you in my hand

Higher, higher, higher
Higher than I am

So this is where I long to be
From now until eternity
A shepherd of the soul to me
And I will be the lamb, I will be the lamb

Higher, higher, higher
Higher than I am

I see you sleeping now
Invincible and golden
There's nowhere else
To go from here

So this is where I long to be
From now until eternity
A shepherd of the soul to me
And I will be the lamb, I will be the lamb

I will be the lamb
Higher than I am
