Say the words, break my heart
Touch my lips with your fingers and push them apart
Put your hands in my hair and pull me down
Well, you're nothing but a stranger to me now

'Cause I'm long past feeling
And I'm too far gone
Staring at my ceiling
I know silence better than anyone

Say my name and look away
Take a breath take a bow and take the train
Say your piece and say goodbye
You will regret that alibi

'Cause I'm long past feeling
And I'm loading my gun
Staring at my ceiling
I know silence better than anyone
