Wouldn't be who i am if i wasn't who i was
If i wasn't who i was when i lost your love
You threw me away like an old love note
Like an old love note that i never shoulda wrote
But i did and i felt like a fool
Felt like a fool for fallin' for you
Like a diamond ring down a rusty drain
Down a rusty drain just washed away

Yeah yeah yeah so long
Good for me i'm better off gone
Yeah yeah i'm alright
There for a while thought i was a goner
What didn't kill me made me stronger

Your promises they fell apart
They fell apart like a broke down car
Turn the key but it just won't start
Haven't thought about you and i ain't gonna start

Not today and never again
Ain't goin' back to where i've been

Yeah yeah yeah so long
Good for me i'm better off gone
Yeah yeah i'm alright
There for a while thought i was a goner
What didn't kill me made me stronger

These days are gone like an old love song
Yeah dead and gone like an old love song
Ain't countin' back, the record's scratched
The record's scratched and it's too damn bad

Yeah yeah yeah so long
Good for me i'm better off gone
Yeah yeah i'm alright
There for a while thought i was a goner
What didn't kill me made me stronger
