I'm staying with a friend of mine
Cause at home the tension's running high
Even though we both agree
This is for the best maybe - you're wrong

I'm sorry bout the dirty clothes
And all the dishes in the sink
I think I need some time alone
I just need time to sit and think

Sounds good and everything
Even though it kind of stings
I'm exorcising demons from my life

Oh demons be gone
Leave me alone tonight
Oh tonight

Don't come around here any more
Don't wanna see you at my door
I can hear you haunting me
That much is plain just let me be
