i dont wanna let you down i dont wanna make you run from me oh we can share a glance or we can share a reckless smile

i wanted to let you know i wanted to tell the truth to you this could be excelled(?)
this could be what we prayed for

on my own two feet
i struggle hard to meet the girl with the brightest eyes ive ever seen you and me were meant for each other how i never asked for another thing just to be with you, yeah!

da, da da, da, da da da da da

just to be with you, yeah!

i would have never asked for another thing just to be with you, yeah!
