"Tired Of Being Alone"

Visit "Tired Of Being Alone" on MotoLyrics.com

Once, you dreamed of me, twice
You wished that I'd pull you out
You chose your life , and put me down
Still you don't understand

Tired of being alone

What you have dreamed is not what I am
So far
Let me be the one
Please understand me
How I am
but I don't want, to walk alone
I need your hands to warm my soul

Tired of being alone
Tired of being alone

I will do my best to become your love I'll try to fill the emptiness
in our hearts
Oh so tired of being alone

Tired of being alone
i want to feel , i need to fall in love with you Tired of being alone
