Now and again
We'll leave
We'll fly
We'll go out on a limb
Do we really care
Or are we still struggling to swim
I don't know why we can't just live with the weight of your heart

Moments like these Trust me
They'll come back to haunt you
I know
Better to be, the first to leave than the last one to go
And I can't be the one to tell you to end or to stop

Our past,
Slides through the hourglass,
Pushing the first to last
Where at last I begin

Our past,
Slides through the hourglass,
Pushing the first to last
Where at last i begin

Our past,
Slides through the hourglass,
Pushing the first to last
Where at last i begin
Where at last i begin
Where at last i begin

Where at last i begin

Now and again
We'll leave
We'll fly
We'll go out on a limb
