

Feeling, The "Build A Home"

The penny's dropped,
I'm gonna be the one to say sorry first.
I'm well rehearsed.
The penny's dropped,
I'm gonna be the one to say I was wrong.
And then we're done.
Cause even when there is sorrow in your heart,
You need a place, need a place, need a place to start.
Ooh, so build a home, put pictures on the wall,
Choose a color for the door and let me in. (Na na na na)
Build a home, cause I never wanna know
What it is to be alone, no not again.
The penny's dropped,
How come a simple thought can be so delayed.
Ain't it strange?
The penny's dropped, I've got it.
I'm gonna have a drink and we'll start again.
I'm still your friend.

Even when there is hunger in your heart,
You need a place, need a place, need a place to start.
Ooh, so build a home, put pictures on the wall,
Choose a color for the door and let me in. (Na na na na)
Build a home, cause I never wanna know
What it is to be alone, no not again.
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh (Na na na na)
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Cause even when there is sorrow in your heart,
You need a place, need a place, need a place to start.
Ooh, so build a home, put pictures on the wall,
Choose a color for the door and let me in. (Na na na na)
Build a home, cause I never wanna know
How it feels to be alone, no not again.
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh (Na na na na)
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
