I turn on the tap and run some water Flick a little switch on the wall Im hoping you remember what I tought ya hoping you remember me at all

I'm strong, but I feel like a mouse when your gone yes and i'm weak, but ill take on the world when your here
with me,
with me...
Can't you see your in the wrong place won't you please face it and come home when I think about your sweet face I cant wait for you to come home
I can see youve got a real taste for that champagne but its all gone,
so come home...
the kettle's on....

I got a little something on my mind to keep it to myself isnt really very kind pouring out my heart isnt usually my style but you gave me an inch, so im going to take a mile you see...

I'm strong, but I feel like a mouse when your gone yes and i'm weak, but ill take on the world when your
with me,
with me...
Can't you see your in the wrong place
won't you please face it and come home
when I think about your sweet face
I cant wait for you to come home
I can see youve got a real taste for that champagne
but its all gone,
so come home...
the kettle's on....

Yeah! yeah! yeah hey!
ahhhhhhh etc....

Can't you see your in the wrong place
won't you please face it and come home when I tink about your sweet face
I cant wait for you to come home

Can't you see your in the wrong place
won't you please face it and come home
when I tink about your sweet face I cant wait for you to come.....
