Come, why don't you come along, babe
Why don't you come along, babe
Why don't you come along, babe
Why don't you come along,
Why don't you run to me, babe
We can get out of here,
We can get out of here, babe
Nobody loves you here.
Do you long for a place far away from this awful town?
Well this is the way to go,
Do you feel darkness in your soul?
A little love and care it's so rare,
A little love and care.
When it gets hard to see,
Open your eyes and look for me,
A little love and care it's so rare,
A little love and care.
Don't go anywhere, don't do anything dangerous,
There's a whole load of people depending on you for their happiness.
So don't do anything, don't go anywhere, stay with us,

It's a terrible world, you should know you belong with the likes of us.
But don't you long for a place far away from this awful crowd?
This is the way to go,
Do you feel darkness in your soul?
A little love and care it's so rare,
A little love and care.
If diamonds can make you stay,
You might as well throw them all away,
A little love and care it's so rare,
A little love and care.
This is the way to go,
Do you feel darkness in your soul?
A little love and care it's so rare,
A little love and care.
When it gets hard to see,
Open your eyes and look for me,
A little love and care it's so rare,

A little love and care.
Why don't you come along?
[repeat]
