You and your friends and boxes of ten Cool to the touch, you warm me so much The white to your left and the red to your right were all that I'd seen
'Til I realized the love that I seek lies right in between

Rose, I love you especially today
Rose, I love your delicate way

The chill in my veins, relieves me from pain again and again
I lose all control, your taking your toll, I'm no longer sane
But don't be afraid, the love that I show is the love that you've made So don't be afraid 'cause your in control, I'm just your slave

Rose, I love you especially today
Rose, I love your delicate way

Don't let him put you down, I won't let him put you down
'Cause your as good as the rest and you're much better dressed
I think pink is my color, I won't drink from no other, never

Oh, I love you especially today, especially this way Oh, Rose, I want you, believe me this way Oh, Rose, I love your delicate way, ooh
