You say I don't need you
But I don't believe you
Everybody needs everyone....well,
Everybody needs someone
All the things that you borrowed left you scared of tomorrow
How you ever gonna pay back?
You'll have a heart attack

But every little thing that you gave away
Every little kiss up until today
You're gonna get it back somehow
I thought you wanna know by now

Won't go away
Never goes away
Never ever goes away
And even when you're gone
Your memory will linger on
Never goes away
Never ever goes away
Love will make you strong
But don't forget to pass it on

If you've ever been lonely
Then you'll know that I'm only
One person from happiness
One person away from happiness

And it may never happen
Cos im never in fashion
And it feels like i'm getting old
I feel i'm getting old

But every little thing that I gave away
Every little smile up until today
I'm gonna get it back somehow
I'm gonna get it back right now

Won't go away
Never goes away

Never ever goes away
And even when you're gone
Your memory will linger on
Never goes away
Never ever goes away
Love will make you strong
but don't forget to pass it on

Now you've left a trace
In hearts and time and space

Won't go away
Never goes away
Never ever goes away
Never goes away
Never ever goes away
