( your thoughts & mine ep )

Leave the sad things behind , they're not roses or a lullabye

Let's not talk about your kind of cryin' , the cryin's all over now

It went away with last night , & now it's today so ...

I try holding your hand , I'm playing no games so you don't understand

You've been hurt , you've said all that before , the cryin's all over now

It went away with last night , & now it's today so ...

You're so fearful your heart might come to harm , you've made a prison of your past

So afraid of any love , it is destined to not last

So sad to see you cry , to see you walk away with no goodbye
