If we have to wait forever, that's alright
If you say lets run away and leave tonight
I'll do anything you ever ask me to Girl the reason my hearts beating is for you
And you alone

There's a price you pay for every choice you make We'll have our day no matter what it takes I'll be there for you whatever we go through Girl the reason lifes worth living is for you
And you alone

Oh, you and you alone are with me from now on
Even if I never see your face again
The love that you have shown is unlike anything I've known
We both know its just a matter of will

Wish that we could just turn back the hands of time
To find a way to have your world fit into mine
I'll keep dreaming that some day it'll all come true
Girl the reason my hearts breaking is for you
And you alone

Oh, you and you alone are with me from now on
Even if I never see your face again
The love that you have shown is unlike anything I've
known
We both know its just a matter of will sallysally@usa.net
