Scorching sunlight
You've been looking for an amazing time
Count your blessings
You don't know how lovely you are

What went wrong?
If you give up dreaming now,
I could change nothing
I'm looking for a reason to believe

I'd like to gather up all your smiles
and wave the magic wand
I'd like to know how to be honest
Oh, because I've been chasing dreams all my life

Scorching sunlight
You're wearing the perfume I love
Your fingers are crossed
I wanna know what I can do for you

I sing away
It takes time to find the place you love
I love your laugh
I wanna paint a picture in your mind

I'd like to gather up all your smiles
and wave the magic wand
I'd like to know how to be honest
Oh, because I've been chasing dreams all my life
