I'm tired of blood and over priced bubble gum, mom?
nobody wake up there's nothing you could have done wrong?

I'm wearing the same grin, I take it all on the chin?
I still believe everything that I read?
and sometimes it's hard, sometimes it's harder?
sometimes it's on sale, sometimes it never fails?
I have a psychic and she says I'm lonely?
she says my destiny is turning out all wrong?
so now I just sit here?
and think of meaningful things to say?

Symbolistic white walls?
surround me and you?
every single day?
I am cheap and see through?

I'm tired of blood and over priced bubble gum?
nobody moves and nobody gets hurt for very long?
I'm wearing the same skin, I take it all on the chin?
I still believe everything that I hear?
and sometimes it's easy, sometimes it's easier?
and sometimes it's all free?
I have a psychic and she says I'm lonely?
she says inside of me is turning out all wrong?
so now I just sit here?
and think of meaningless things to say?

It's all right now?
take the world and make it yours again?
