you are the sun and i'm the rain everything was beautiful i am the whisky autumn day champagne was beautiful we are hard to handle now shouldn't seem unusual still i really don't know how sun and rain are beautiful

it's all a mystery
you can see what you want to see it's a fine line between it all but that's alright, it used to be beautiful (chorus)
i don't remember the last word spoken i don't remember anyone's arms open i remember your face
i remember that place
broken
i hold a white dove in my hand still you're not embracable i guess you know we could be friends if our past were erasable

there's a time for everything and the reason why the white dove flies and even though she still looks beautiful (chorus)
last night on the radio they played a song to you and me someone had a broken heart and someone could not let it be i don't call you sweetheart but there's still a time for everything

(chorus)
