Tangled tempest, gray and green
Limbs dripping over my path, all I see is highway
No TV, no dirty city street, no telephone ringing
All hours of the night for me

See now I'm free, I am born in the sun
I'm free and my life's just begun
Yeah, my life's just begun

I was a bird, I was flying over stripped earth
I was desperate to land, I was desperate to perch, that's how I feel
Seldom we find the peace we deserve
Desperate to love, needing rebirth, that's how I feel

And now you see, you see I'm free, I am born in the sun
I'm free and my life's just begun
I'm free, colors bleed into one
I am free, Caroline here I come
Yeah, Caroline here I come
