Hey, wouldn't you wanna know
Everywhere that river flows to right now
I can show you how
'Cause someday you might wanna go

Someday you got nothing to show
For all your pain, for all your chains
I ain't saying it's the only way
But wouldn't you like to know

How it feels to live like a free man
To give when there's nothing in your hand
Run like only the river can
Like a free man

You've only so many roads to choose
Sooner or later the ones you use
They all look the same
Someday you might feel the need

Someday when you're tired of bleeding for someone else
You're gonna want it for yourself
I ain't saying it's the only way
But wouldn't you like to know
