Mother, why are you cryin'?
Only wanna hold you
Never gonna scold you no

Father, I need someone older
To put it all together
When you think the world will never mend

Someday, I won't be running
From the sun and the moon
Someday and that day is coming
Someday soon

In my life, will I be heard?
I'm just a little boy in the universe
Once or twice, I served
But I never got what I deserved

Someday, I won't be running
From the sun and the moon
Someday and that day is coming
Someday soon

So hard to tell ya
So hard to figure out
So hard to find these words
In my mind

Someday, I won't be running
From the sun and the moon
Someday and that day is coming soon
Someday soon
Someday soon
Someday soon
