chrous:

you can run but you can't hide, i will be right by your side, cause i've thinkin' about you,
'coz i've been thinkin' 'bout you, thinkin' 'bout you and the way you make me feel,
you can run but you can't hide,
baby you just can't deny, that you've been thinkin' 'bout me, thinkin' 'bout me it's nothing to conceal

V1:

you and i got so much in common, i think you know, baby what i mean you're acting like you don't want me, but that's not the way that it seems to be,
'coz i can tell that you're watching, i feel the heat when we're touching,
i won't let go,
i wanna know, is it love?

bridge:

maybe it's because you're trying to be cool, maybe you're afraid of breakin' the rules hey -ey -ey -ey don't make me for a fool chorus

V2:

i see the looks that you give me, i know just what they mean to me, the games you play drives me crazy, don't fool around with this lady, boy i won't chase you forever, it's gotta be now or never,
so let it show,
i wanna know, is it love?

chorus

rap:

hey boy, knockin' at my backdoor, playin' me hot and cold, but you will never let go baby 'coz i got what it takes, got what you need playin' the hide and seek, but i'm here for keeps boy i'm gonna get'cha you can be sure i'm gonna get'cha what the world brings, 'coz it's a girlthing is it on, is it on?
is it cold, it is hot?
baby you can run, but you just can't hide

bridge

chorus to end
