We've been threw hell and back and baby that's not deniable

I got to say good bye cause I see your not reliable

U could say I broke ur heart but your the one liable

I got to focus on my money and make my life viable

Now u can sit here and look at me like I'm wrong

But me and you know its been done for way too long

So to all the fake bitches of my past, I say so long

If you don't know what I mean just keep listen to the song

Me and you, it all looked good from the start

But you were about games, and that's what teared us apart

I tried to forgive, find an answer inside my heart your the only one to blame for my love goin dark

U blame me and I blame u, lets just call u truce

U must think im dumb and that I don't know the truth

I don't have time to sit listen to an excuse

So goodbye to my past, ill just leave um with a deuce

Im on some new shit

Im chuckin my deuces up to her

Im moving on to something better, better, better

No more tryin to make it work

You made me wanna say bye bye, say bye bye, say bye bye to her
