Kevin said, see the world, watch it turning
Then there's nothing I'd rather do
Sitting watch it all go by Slowly drifting pleasant moon
There's a rain cloud in the sky
And I'm always worried

When Marie doesn't come
Won't you hand me down, son

Susan's said it never stops, there's always something new
And I'm afraid I'm gonna fall off
If I do now will you catch me
When she didn't, sure I'll try but I think I miss her there
I miss here now

When Marie doesn't come
Won't you hand me down, son
See the world, watch it turning
See the world, watch it turning
